Section 30

- (b) in relation to meals and incidentals—up to the rate per week applicable to an SES employee as advised from time to time under the Commonwealth Allowance Subscription Service for temporary accommodation allowances.

30 Settling in allowance

- (1) The settling in period is the period beginning up to 7 days before the day when the Secretary begins duty at the new locality and ending on the earlier of:
 - (a) the day when suitable accommodation or suitable temporary accommodation becomes available at the new locality; or
 - (b) the day 13 weeks after the day when the Secretary begins duty at the new locality.
- (2) During the settling in period, the Secretary is entitled to settling in allowance of:
 - (a) in relation to the costs of accommodation—$1,727 per week; and
 - (b) in relation to meals and incidentals—up to the rate per week applicable to an SES employee as advised from time to time under the Commonwealth Allowance Subscription Service for temporary accommodation allowances.

31 Accommodation support

A Secretary who did not live in the locality of the Australian Capital Territory immediately before the commencement of the term of appointment as Secretary is entitled to accommodation support of an amount per week equal to $34,500 per year for the duration of the Secretary's term and any subsequent term as Secretary if the Secretary:

- (a) continues to maintain a residence in the Secretary's home locality; and
- (b) does not buy a property in the locality of the Australian Capital Territory.

32 Reunion travel

- (1) This section applies to a Secretary who:
 - (a) did not, immediately before the commencement of the Secretary's initial term of appointment as a Secretary, ordinarily live in the locality of the Australian Capital Territory; and
 - (b) maintains a principal place of residence elsewhere in Australia during the initial term of appointment as a Secretary and during any successive term of appointment as a Secretary.
- (2) The Secretary is entitled, for the purposes of family reunion, in each 12 months of service, at the Secretary's election at the time of appointment or reappointment to:
 - (a) 12 business class return airfares between Canberra and the capital city nearest the Secretary's principal place of residence; or
 - (b) travel for the purposes of reunion up to the value of 12 business class return fares between Canberra and the capital city nearest the principal place of residence.

- (3) The travel entitlement provided to the Secretary under subsection (2) may be used by the Secretary and the Secretary's immediate family members. Where business travel to the capital city nearest to the Secretary's principal place of residence provides an opportunity for family reunion (such as when the business travel is adjacent to a weekend), the reunion fare entitlement is to be reduced by the equivalent of one return business class fare.
- (4) Travel provided to the Secretary under subsection (2) may be undertaken only while the Secretary occupies the office of a Secretary. Any travel not taken by the day a Secretary ceases to occupy the office of a Secretary ceases to be available.
- (5) The value of the travel provided to a Secretary under subsection (2) may not be taken as a cash equivalent or converted to any other use.

Part 8—Assistance for training and development

33 Leave for training and development

The Prime Minister or the Prime Minister's delegate may grant leave of absence with pay to a Secretary to enable the Secretary to pursue training or development activities that the Prime Minister or the Prime Minister's delegate considers to be in the interests of the Commonwealth. Such leave of absence may be subject to conditions at the discretion of the Prime Minister or the Prime Minister's delegate.

34 Costs of training and development

A Secretary's Minister may approve reimbursement of costs incurred by the Secretary in connection with training or development activities. Such reimbursement is at the discretion of the Secretary's Minister, may be in full or in part, and may be subject to conditions.

Part 9—Delegation

35 Secretary’s Minister may delegate functions

A Secretary’s Minister may delegate any of the Minister’s functions under this instrument to another Minister.

Part 10—Application and transitional provisions

36 Application provisions

- (1) The amendments of this instrument made by the Remuneration Tribunal (Departmental Secretaries—Classification Structure and Terms and Conditions) Amendment Determination 2023 apply in relation to any termination of the appointment of a Secretary that occurs after the commencement of that determination.
- (2) To avoid doubt, the amendments apply even if a report under section 41A of the Public Service Act 1999, or an investigation report under section 149 of the National Anti-Corruption Commission Act 2022, is given in relation to the conduct of a Secretary before that commencement.

Legislation history and amendment history—Endnotes 3 and 4

Amending laws are annotated in the legislation history and amendment history.

The legislation history in endnote 3 provides information about each law that has amended (or will amend) the compiled law. The information includes commencement details for amending laws and details of any application, saving or transitional provisions that are not included in this compilation.

The amendment history in endnote 4 provides information about amendments at the provision (generally section or equivalent) level. It also includes information about any provision of the compiled law that has been repealed in accordance with a provision of the law.

Editorial changes

The Legislation Act 2003 authorises First Parliamentary Counsel to make editorial and presentational changes to a compiled law in preparing a compilation of the law for registration. The changes must not change the effect of the law. Editorial changes take effect from the compilation registration date.

If the compilation includes editorial changes, the endnotes include a brief outline of the changes in general terms. Full details of any changes can be obtained from the Office of Parliamentary Counsel.

Misdescribed amendments

A misdescribed amendment is an amendment that does not accurately describe how an amendment is to be made. If, despite the misdescription, the amendment can be given effect as intended, then the misdescribed amendment can be incorporated through an editorial change made under section 15V of the Legislation Act 2003.

If a misdescribed amendment cannot be given effect as intended, the amendment is not incorporated and “(md not incorp)” is added to the amendment history.
