Part 5—Travel and accommodation assistance

16 Accommodation assistance

- (1) An office holder in column 1 of Table 5A is eligible to be reimbursed for qualifying accommodation costs while the office holder:
- (a) occupies the office in column 2; and
 - (b) has a principal place of residence in a locality (the PPR locality) other than the office locality.

Commercial accommodation

- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), if the office holder is in commercial accommodation in the office locality, the following are qualifying accommodation costs up to the amount (per year) in column 3 of Table 5A:
- (a) the costs of the commercial accommodation;
 - (b) settling-in costs (including one-off utility connection costs);

- (c) if the commercial accommodation does not include cooking facilities—the cost of meals.

Private, non-commercial accommodation

- (3) For the purposes of subsection (1), if the office holder is in private, non-commercial accommodation (such as the home of a family member or friend) in the office locality, the costs of the private, non-commercial accommodation are qualifying accommodation costs up to one third of the amount (per year) in column 3 of Table 5A.

Exclusions

- (4) Assistance is not payable under this section while the office holder lives in premises owned by the office holder in the office locality.
- (5) An office holder is not eligible to access travel allowance entitlements under the official travel determination in the PPR locality or the office locality while the office holder remains eligible to receive assistance under this section.

Amounts of accommodation assistance

- (6) Amounts of accommodation assistance are set out in the following table (Table 5A).

Table 5A—Accommodation assistance
Item	Column 1 Office holder	Column 2 Office	Column 3 Assistance (per year)
1	Dr Caralee McLiesh	Auditor-General for Australia (between 4 November 2024 and 21 December 2024)	$5,750

17 Reunion travel assistance

- (1) An office holder in column 1 of Table 5B may receive travel costs of up to the amount (per year) in column 3 for travel back to the locality of the office holder’s principal place of residence (the PPR locality) for the purpose of family reunion, while the office holder occupies the office in column 2.
- (2) If the office holder certifies that the workload and responsibilities of the office prevent the office holder from travelling to the PPR locality for reunion purposes, the costs of reunion travel by the office holder’s partner, or a child or children of the office holder or of the office holder’s partner, who resides at the office holder’s principal place of residence, can be funded. Funding paid in accordance with this subsection counts towards the limit in subsection (1).
- (3) Travel by a person other than the office holder funded in accordance with subsection (2) must be at economy class, and only for direct travel between the PPR locality and the office locality.
- (4) Amounts of reunion travel assistance are set out in the following table (Table 5B).
